GLAD HE'S IN JAIL

Satisfied With Comfortable Quarters and Three Square Meals

Charles Plummer, a youth of some 19 years, was arrested Saturday by Constable Chisholm on the charge of pointing a revolver at another.

He confessed judgment in Squire Dreisel's Court and was fined $50 and given ten days in jail.

Charles's sweetheart, Rachel Young, a comely short street belle, had attended a dance Friday night and danced with another suitor, which so angered Plummer that he threatened her life, and did actually flourish a revolver in the young lady's face.

When arrested and placed in jail he remarked to the officers that he didn't care as he wanted a rest anyhow.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

"Lodge of Sorrow" Yesterday at Maysville Lodge, B. P. O. E.

The annual Memorial Services of Maysville Lodge No. 704, B. P. O. E., held last afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church, were attended by a large per cent. of the membership of the Order and their friends.

The exercises were very impressive.

Special music by the Choir of the Church, with Mrs. John Barbour presiding at the organ, the usual ritualistic ceremonies by the Lodge and an able address by Rev. John Barbour, D. D., made up the program.

The discourse of Dr. Barbour was along practical lines, but replete with beautifully rounded sentences and exquisite word painting.

BIBLE SOCIETY

Annual Meeting Last Night of Mason County Branch

The eighty-fourth annual meeting of the Maysville and Mason County Bible Society was held last evening at the Central Presbyterian Church, with Judge A. M. J. Cochran in the Chair.

Miss Florence Rogers presided at the organ. After Song No. 58 was sung, Dr. George H. Harris read the scripture lesson found in Ephesians, 6th chapter and 10th verse, including the rest of the chapter.

Dr. John Barbour then led in the evening's prayer.

The report of the Treasurer, Mr. John C. Peacock, was then read, which is as follows—

The Secretary then read his report of the last meeting, which was held on the first Sunday evening in December, 1904, at the Church of the Nativity.

The President appointed the following as the nominating Committee, to nominate officers for the ensuing year—W. W. Ball, J. T. Kackley, James B. Wood, R. A. Cochran and D. S. Clinger.

While the Committee was out to select the new officers Song No. 155 and a beautiful duet by Mrs. Robert T. Cummins and Mrs. Robert L. Baldwin were sung.

Collection was taken for work. Dr. John Barbour moved and was seconded that inasmuch as the American Bible Society was in dire need of money that it should be considered by the new officers to donate more money at once to the work. The question was put and carried.

The Nominating Committee then reported the following officers for the year—

President—Judge A. M. J. Cochran.

Vice-Presidents—All Ministers of city and county who unite in the work.

Secretary—George H. Frank.

Treasurer—J. C. Pecor.

Executive Committee—J. F. Barbour, E. L. Worthington, John Duley, Robert B. Owens, M. B. Clark, W. H. Cox, George N. Harding, James H. Pollett.

Then the address of the evening came by Rev. G. W. Bunton who gave a magnificent talk, defending the Bible and telling how it has revealed God to man, being the foundation of all civilization, strengthening the hearts of all present, which was quite a few.

After Song No. 465, Rev. Bunton pronounced the benediction.

BETWEEN playing Czar of Russia and piloting a Republican newspaper in a Democratic county, I believe I'd choose the latter.

DON'T hold your breath till I get that Pension Agency. Who ever heard of a two-dollar-and-a-half Editor falling into a four-thousand-dollar office?

THE football season of 1905 has been pretty nearly as fatal as the Spanish-American War. Up to date there have been 19 killed and 127 variously injured.

SOME political economists have ventured the suggestion that wars are necessary to prevent over-population. The modern game of football ought to obviate that necessity.

OH, yes; the "open ballot" is such a safeguard against error or fraud! In the vote for members of the Board of Education at the recent election—which is conducted on the old viva voce system—one First Ward man voted twice on the same page; and both the Precinct election officers and the County Canvassing Board passed it!

IF I conclude to accept the Pension Agency which that Washington correspondent has so generously placed at my disposal "some years hence," I sincerely hope for a more hospitable welcome to my former home, "dear old Louisville," than is promised the newly-appointed Surveyor of Port. But, come to think of it, "Dick" Wood is making a mighty good Pension Agent.

Hi, there! Mr. WILLIE BRYAN, have you heard that silver is "jumping," and that it is now worth 65¢ cents an ounce? This is the highest price since 1896; and if the thing keeps on, one may yet be able to pay for a twenty-pound turkey with a cartload of coin.

IF Inauguration Day is changed from March 4th to the last Thursday in April, as will be recommended to the coming Congress, it will be a sad blow to the "furnished room" industry in Washington. The weather will then be warm enough for visitors to sleep in the parks and in the reservations.

ON the application of WILLIAM R. HEARST, the out-counted candidate for Mayor of New York, Justice AMEND of the Supreme Court issued formal orders directing the opening of the ballot-boxes in several of the Assembly Districts of New York City. With a spirit of fairness that does him credit, Mayor McCLELLAN directed his Attorneys to offer no objections.

MRS. CASSIE CHADWICK isn't half as "gay" as she used to be. At first she just couldn't be induced to say a word about her peculiar financial methods. Now, however, that she is beginning to feel the pressure of Uncle Sam's strong hand, she asks to have her case reopened, promising to go on the witness stand and warble. The Referee in Bankruptcy has agreed to accommodate the lady, and much fun is expected.

RAKING

SHE FORGAVE HIM.

"It has come to my ears," remarked Miss De Playne, "that you said my face would make a man climb a fence."

"Yes, that's what I said," replied the diplomatic one; "but, of course, I meant if he happened to be on the other side of the fence."

Although adulterated Spices should never be used for any purpose, there is no time when pure Spices are needed more than during the hog-killing season.

You can be sure of Pure Spices of the best quality if you purchase them here, for in spice purchasing we trust nobody, but test everything in the spice line the same as we do our drugs. If you could see what a lot we have to reject you would appreciate being able to so easily procure the pure kind.

At the present time we can furnish you with some of the freshest and best Sage, Black Pepper, Cayenne Pepper, etc., that was ever raised, and they'll cost you no more than old, flavorless, adulterated kinds which are frequently sold.

ANDY JACKSON NEVER SAID SO

"To the Victor Belong the Spoils."

No one sentence is perhaps more famous or familiar than this is in the literature of politics. Ask a hundred men who is the author of it, and ninety-nine will say Andrew Jackson. Yet Jackson never uttered it and, in fact, repudiated its sentiment. Strange fatality, indeed, that "Jacksonian Democracy" should popularly be taken to include the practice of giving office as reward for political activity.

The real author of this phrase was William L. Marcy, a United States Senator from New York, and it was used during a debate in the United States Senate on the confirmation of Martin Van Buren as Minister to England.

New York state politicians were the pioneers in this country of the "spoils system" and to this system Marcy and Van Buren were devoted.

Van Buren was Jackson's Secretary of State and had been nominated by "Old Hickory" to be Minister to the Court of St. James. Van Buren had gained the enmity of a number of the leading Senators, and when the Senate convened a determined and successful fight was made on his confirmation, only to result, as Benton said, in "breaking a Minister and making a President;" for Van Buren succeeded Jackson. Marcy in the course of his speech said—

"It is a crude and incorrect notion that Jackson corrupted the civil service."

Jackson, when he took the Presidency, found, as he believed, that the departments were full of incompetent and corrupt men, and that Clay and Adams had demoralized the whole civil service so that many changes were absolutely demanded by the public welfare. No man was closer to Jackson than Amos Kendall, a member of the so-called "Kitchen Cabinet." He was the mouthpiece of the Jackson Administration, and, writing to the Editor of The Baltimore Patriot on March 24th, 1829, he said:

not with babbling politicians; partisan feeling shall not enter here."

In fact, none of the "fathers of Democracy" seemed to have believed in the doctrine contained in Marcy's declaration. Jefferson had these qualifications for office—

"Is he honest? Is he capable? Is he faithful to the Constitution?"

During his eight years of service as President he made but thirty-nine removals from office. Madison, in a debate on the President's sole power of removal, declared that if the President should remove any officer for any reason not connected with efficient service or character, he should be impeached. Madison, during eight years as President, made but five removals, and three of these were defaulters. Monroe, in eight years, made but nine removals from office. These are the "fathers." Of later-day leaders, United States Senator George H. Pendleton of Ohio was the most distinguished advocate of the merit system of the country. Grover Cleveland put it into practice. Tom L. Johnson declares it part of his creed. Thus does another historical superstition seem to vanish.

AN AGED PHYSICIAN

After Years of Experience Gives the Following Advice.

"If you have anything to do with medicines at all be pretty sure you know what you are taking."

Our local druggist, John C. Pecor, says this is a strong point in favor of their valuable cod liver preparation, Vinol. Everything it contains is plainly printed on the bottle, therefore it is not a patent medicine.

Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cod's livers, but without a drop of oil or grease to nauseate and upset the stomach.

This is the reason that Vinol accomplishes such wonderful results in curing chronic coughs, colds, bronchial and lung troubles, and there is nothing known to medicine that will so quickly build up the run down, overworked, tired and debilitated, or give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, as Vinol.

Mrs. Martha Fraser of Portland, Me., writes:

"I was all run down from overwork and had a chronic cough for years. I had tried so many remedies without help that I had lost all faith in medicine. My daughter bought me a bottle of Vinol. It simply worked wonders for me; it cured my cough and brought back health and strength and I am better than I have been for years."

We can only ask every one in Maysville who needs such a medicine to try Vinol on your guarantee to return their money if it fails."

A GREAT WEAPON

Maysville People Cannot Fail to Appreciate the Worth of It

Only one weapon To fight backache—The weapon that strikes the cause—Doan's Kidney Pills reach the root; Their work in Maysville proves it. You read of cures made years ago, And the cures were lasting cures. Read the following:

Mrs. Mary Thomas, wife of J. A. Thomas, of 204 Limestone St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I am only too pleased to confirm the statement I made in the spring of 1900 recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, after they had relieved me of backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. I got them then at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. During the years that have elapsed since I made that statement I have had occasion to give Doan's Kidney Pills a further trial, and I have found that it requires only a few doses to ward off attacks of kidney trouble or to check them before they become serious. I can also point to the case of my boy, twelve years old, who at the time I first used Doan's Kidney Pills was troubled a great deal with weakness of the kidneys and could not control the secretions properly. I gave him Doan's Kidney Pills and he improved rapidly under the treatment. The relief he found has proved lasting, and from his experience and mine I am certainly warranted in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."
